BOARD PRESIDENT REPORT: Katie Schroeder introduced incoming trustee Bill Shaw. Bill and Theresa Mehringer will be official trustees by the May 21, 2019 Board Meeting. Katie and Steve are in the process of revising the Trustee Handbook and are hoping to have it available at the June 18, 2019 Board Meeting.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR REPORT: Oli Sanidas updated the trustees on the total cost for the completion of the Kelver Library project including owner costs. These costs include furniture, security, IT, digital displays/makerspace, programming, café equipment, signage, collection, CFLS, and moving costs totaling $8,384,741. Oli also asked the trustees to submit ideas for board presentations in 2020 to him.

KELVER LIBRARY PROJECT PRESENTATION: Representatives from Oz Architecture and Adolphson and Peterson Contractors, introduced themselves and gave a brief project report on the Kelver Library project. The trustees would like more information about including a tornado shelter in the new library.

- Cost and FEMA codes
- Community expectations
- What other libraries in the nation are doing to prepare?
- Are there other shelters in Byers?

Oli Sanidas will email the trustees with the information. The trustees will email questions they have to Steve Oliver by Friday, April 19, 2019. OZ and AP will need a final decision by Friday, April 26, 2019.

REPORTS:

TRUSTEE REPORTS:
- Steve Oliver and his wife spent some time in the Koelbel Café while and were impressed with how people conduct their work in the cafe.

STRATEGIC PLAN REPORT: Jennifer Mahin, Director of Finance, highlighted several activities throughout the District:
- Community conversations with the creative care café group and the English as a Second Language (ESL) class.
- The Sheridan Library staff attended some of the Habitat for Humanity Home Dedication in the Sheridan neighborhood recently and gifted families with library cards and materials.
- The Davies remodel is behind schedule due to weather.
- The cafés at Koelbel and Smoky Hill libraries invited patrons to stop by and pick up a customer loyalty card and a free brewed coffee.
- Over 50 patrons attended programs on the Opioid Crisis in Colorado to see what is being accomplished locally to reduce prescription drug abuse and how they can get involved in helping their community.

LEGAL STATUS REPORT: Legal counsel took questions from the trustees regarding the legal report. Counsel reported that notice of the District’s intent to exercise a five-year option to stay in the current space at Southglenn was sent on September 21, 2018. Discussions concerning installation of a café in the branch remain ongoing at this time.
