

PARENT-CAREGIVER LIBRARY CONNECTION

EARLY LITERACY TIP

Print Motivation

Print motivation means that a child is interested in books and enjoys interacting with them. To help your child develop print motivation make sure that you make reading a positive experience. Sometimes your child may not want to read. Don't force them when they don't want to! The more that your child finds reading enjoyable, the more they will want to read.

JOIN OUR NEWSLETTER

Did you know that Arapahoe Libraries has a newsletter just for caregivers of 0-5? Each month certain events and booklists are highlighted. To subscribe, go to arapahoelibraries.org, scroll to the bottom. On the bottom left corner select "Connect." You can then input your information in to receive our monthly newsletter!

Arapahoe Libraries also has social media you can follow us on! It is directly to the left of the connect button.

SUMMER READING

All children 0-5 can get a FREE book at any Arapahoe Library Location over the Summer. Attend any of our programs for ages 0-5 and receive a free book while supplies last!

When you sign up for the Summer Reading challenge, you will also receive a book! Children will get to select a title. Supplies are limited, so make sure to start summer reading early! If you have older children, encourage them to sign up!
